I'll send you what information I have and what I

(Additional details obtained from the scrap-book records of the late Rev. W. K. BURR (1843-1930) native son historian of Prince Edward)

Peter VALLEAU, Jr., (1800-1874) born in Adolphustown, son of Cornelius VALLEAU, grandson of Lieut. Peter VALLEAU, U.E.L. settler who came with the VanALSTINE party in June 1784. In 1822 Peter Jr. married Martha (Patty) POTTER, daughter of Jess POTTER & Mary Osborne POTTER early settlers in Ameliasburg twp. In 1823 Peter and Martha cut their way through heavily timbered lands to what later became known as the BURR neighbourhood, where they erected a small log cabin closely a running brook and established their home. Ten children were born to this pioneer couple, two dying in childhood; the others being: Jesse who married Almira HUFF, set. in Brighton; William married Maria WANNAMAKER, set. Percy; Cornelius married 1) Polly Pearsall, 2) Miranda POTTER, set. Brighton; Margaret married Lemuel PEARSALL, set. Hillier; Willett married Edith SMITH, set. Hillier; Hiram Buckley married Naomi L. BURR, set. Hillier; Irvine married Phoebe J. TOWNSEND, set. Hillier; Mary Catharine married Dr. Wesley K. BURR, set. Ameliasburg. Peter died in 1874, Martha 1874.

Rynard QUACKENBUSH was the next pioneer to settle at BURR'S, coming in 1823. He was born in Adolphustown in 1799, of U.E.L. ancestry. He married Martha (Patty) PARLIAMENT, daughter of George PARLIAMENT & Mary McTAGGART (U.E.L.) and they had six children born to them. There were Peter, George, Andrew, Calvin and Rynard. The Old Pioneer Burying Ground was given by Rynard Quackenbush off his farm, and therein rest the remains of he and infant son

~~Peter~~

Peter WANNAMAKER, a son of John WANNAMAKER, also a Loyalist from Adolphustown who came to Friar's Mills (Allisonville) in 1826, and grandson of Andrew WANNAMAKER U.E.L. settler in Adolphustown in 1784. Peter married widow Martha Parliament QUACKENBUSH and they had five children, Hiram, Austin, Margaret, James.

Jacob POST was the next pioneer to settle at BURR'S, coming in 1824. He was born in New Jersey in 1779 and is said to have come to Canada in 1784 with the Adolphustown Loyalists. A Jacob POST in July 1813 married Mary Ann QUACKENBUSH in the Fredericksburgh township, the Rev. Robert McDowell officiated. They had two sons, Peter who later lived in Picton, and Frederick who lived in Fredericksburgh. Jacob's second wife was Maria (Rita) QUACKENBUSH and to them were born three children, Isaac, James Q., and Mary Ann. The daughter is buried in the Old Pioneer Burying Ground at BURR'S. The Memorial Cairn closeby bears the inscription of Jacob POST, so it is presumed he also rests there.

Rynard QUACKENBUSH's mother was a sister of Andrew P. WANNAMAKER of Massassaggon son of the Loyalist Andrew WANNAMAKER of Adolphustown. She also was a cousin of Catharine Brickman REDNER (maternal grandmother of W.K. BURR), as well as the mother of the second wife of Martin FREDERICK, Massassaggon, one of the early settlers of BURR'S.

Rynard was a son of Peter QUACKENBUSH who is said to have been in the Major VanALSTINE party of Loyalists arriving in June 1784.

[Faint, illegible handwriting covering the page]

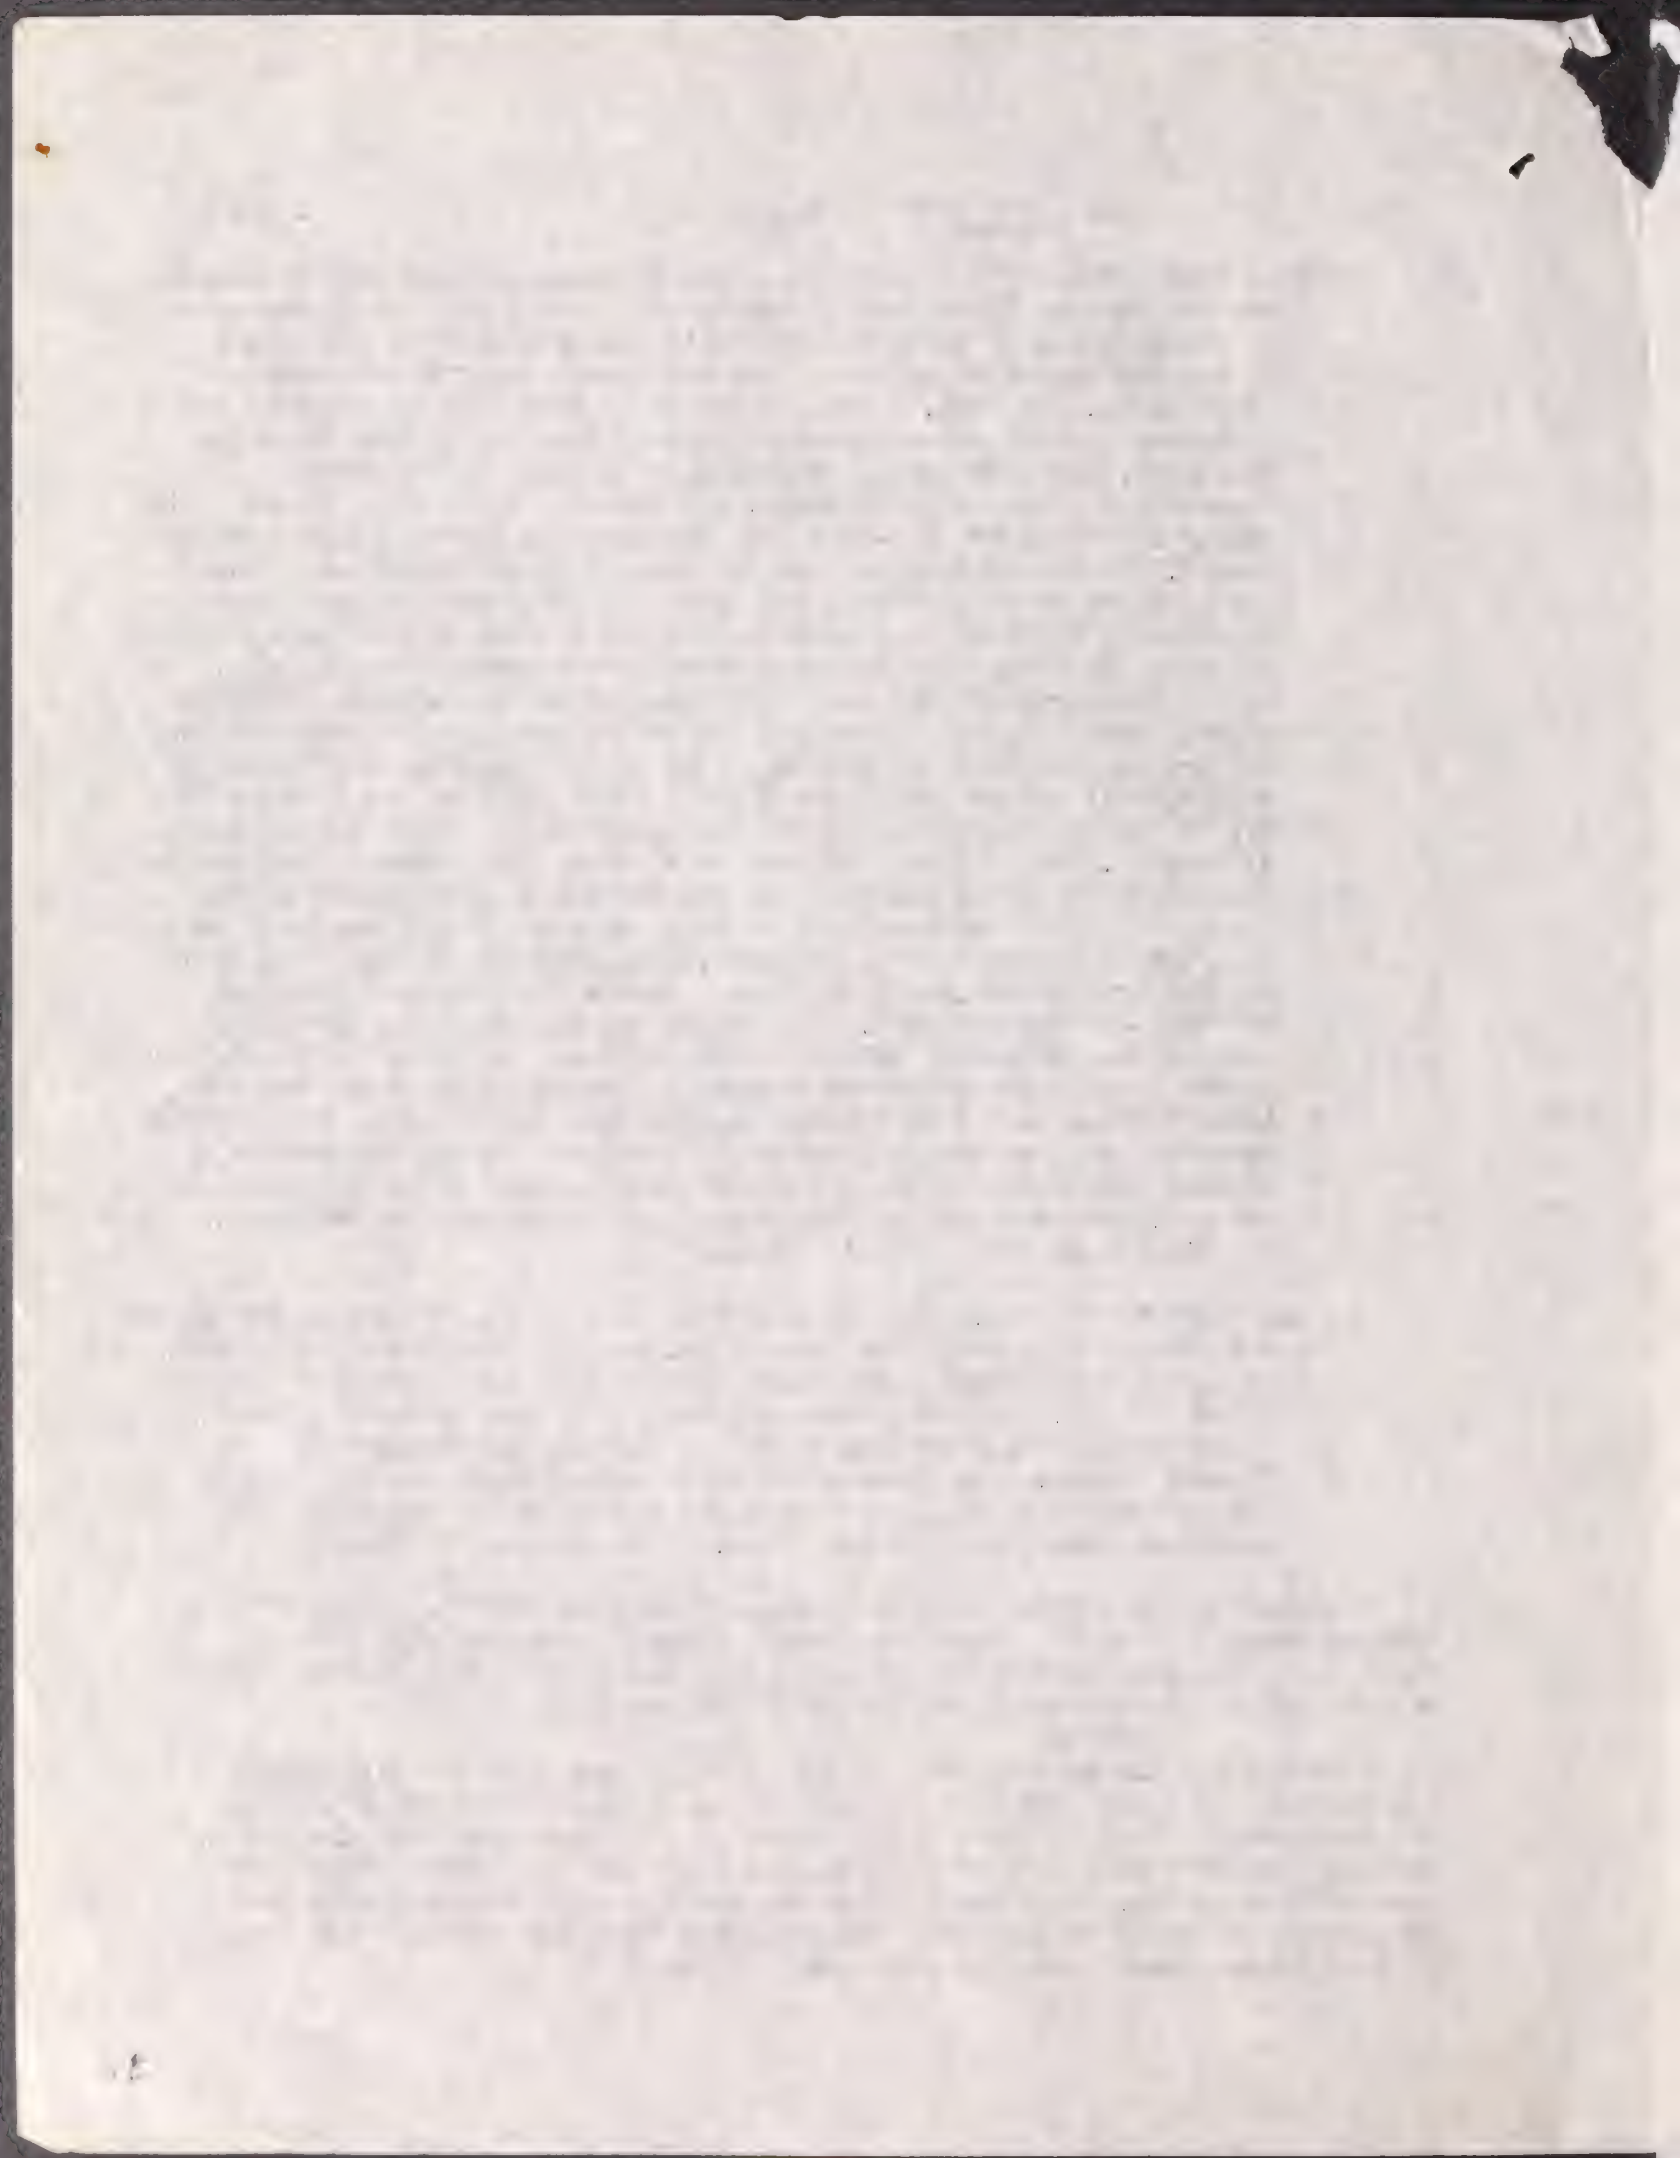

William BURR (1806-1877) brought his eighteen-year-old bride Sophia REDNER, the daughter of Peter, son of Loyalist pioneer Henry REDNER who came to Adolphustown in 1784, to the BURR'S neighbourhood in 1834 after having contracted to purchase from the Clergy Reserve 100 acres of land for $4. per acre. Within a period of less than 30 years he had prospered greatly and acquired adjoining farm lands from Cornelius Ainsworth, Thomas Davidson, William Massey, Henry Seider, Martin Frederick and Bernard Quackenbush. William and Sophia also raised a fine family: 1) Peter BURR (1836-1927) who married Mary Jemima SAYLOR (dau of Adam H. SAYLOR) and they had son Wilfrid and daughter Mary J. before death of Mrs Burr in 1860; a year later he again married, this time to Adelaide TRUMPOUR (dau of Paul TRUMPOUR & Sarah BOWERS) and before her death in 1912, they raised five children: Herman, Harold, affie, Cora and Gertrude Lillian (Mrs Edward BATTEN of Bloomfield); 2) Marshal Bidwell BURR (1840-1920) who married Rhoebe Ann SAYLOR (sister of Mary Jemima) and raised four children: Edna (Mrs Willoughby W. ANDERSON) of Ameliasburg; Matura (Mrs Henry GIBSON) of Bloomfield; Adam Saylor BURR married Jettie STAFFORD; and Clayton W. BURR who married Ethel Thom; 3) Naomi L. BURR (1838-1909) married 1) Josse Wellington RAMES, had son Jesse W. Jr; 2) Hiram Buckley VALLEAU (1838-1919) to whom were born:- Dorwin W. VALLEAU married Maude REDNER; Alberta VALLEAU married James R. A. DAPSON, had sons Earl, Benjamin, John, daughter Lilly; Marna VALLEAU married Fred REDNER, had 3 children; Rhoebe VALLEAU married George HUFFMAN, had two children. 4) Wesley Kenton BURR, D.D., (1843-1930) married Mary Catharine VALLEAU (1845-1939) and raised a family of four:- Kirwan Carroll BURR married Aurelia Ainsworth TRUMPOUR, had two sons, Lorne Cuthbert and Ross Edison; Sophia BURR married Elwood L. SPENCER, Rednersville, had one daughter and two sons; Charity Virginia BURR married John Eaton MORAN of Crofton, had daughter Merle and son Morley; Lenne G. BURR married Dr. E.A. Kingston of Picton and had Marjorie. 5) William L. BURR set. in Chicago

Arnley QUACKENBUSH, M.D., born at BURR'S in 1861 to William Henry QUACKENBUSH and Melissa Jane DOOLITTLE (dau of Wm. Smith DOOLITTLE and Mary PYNE). His great grandparents were Jacob QUACKENBUSH, Lyman DOOLITTLE and Elias PYNE, Sr. and their wives, all early pioneers of Prince Edward. After graduation, he settled a time at Buffalo, then Belleville and finally Ottawa. Near there, while on a fishing trip, lost his life by overturning of canoe. Left widow, sons Gordon, Arnley and Stanley, and daughters Grace, Marjorie and Viola. He was buried in Ottawa.

BURYING

The WHITNEY BURYING GROUND on lot 58 High Shore on a beautiful knoll overlooking the quiet waters of the Bay of Quinte where rests the following: Philip AINSWORTH (son of Elder Philip) born 1802 in Watertown N.Y., died 1826. William B. WHITNEY born 1777 in Vermont, died 1847; his wife Lydia PARLIAMENT died 1864 at age 79. Their son William Jr., and his wife Charity WHEAT; their son Daniel and his wife and Peter COLE; William TYLER and wife and the remains of many other pioneers rest in this beautiful spot

Jacob POST had two brothers, at least, John POST of the Bay front of Ameliasburg, and Rynard POST of Yewerville. Fred rick POST also could be a brother Family of John POST has been dealt with on page one.

The only comment we can offer in regard to Rynard POST would be that a Peter William POST 1833-1919 is buried in Glenwood, Picton; and that a county directory of 1865 shows Jane POST as freeholder of lot 7 concession 2 Hallowell twp., although the county map of 1863 shows said lot in names of Almond BRISTOL and Thomas and John ANDERSON.

Jacob POST is reported to have had at least two sons, Isaac C. and James Q., and based on the 1865 directory we could assume that Peter William was also a son of Jacob. The Burr church is on the Jacob Post Estate land.

Isaac C. POST married Jemima PARLIAMENT (dau of George PARLIAMENT and Mary METACART) and is understood to have settled in Brighton twp. and 10 children. C. E. POST died in July 1929 at Brighton. Was golf club member.

The family of James Q. POST and his wife Catharine AINSWORTH (dau of Henry AINSWORTH & Mary REDNER) is shown on page three. As a son and daughter married into the KING family of Sophiasburgh, we append data :--

George KING came to Sophiasburgh in 1830. His name originally was LeROY, with ancestors coming from France, being Huguenots. He married a daughter of William JENKINS, a shoemaker at Northport and they had five children. Albert Wilson POST of Brighton married one daughter, while his sister Mary E. POST married a son Harrison KING. The Posts were children of James Q. POST of Burr's. William Henry KING married Sarah Anne LAWSON (dau of John M. LAWSON) of Brighton, and a sister of Clinton LAWSON. William Henry KING was born 1835 in a log house at Crofton which was also used as a tavern. He died a tragic death at age 24.

Charles W. POST lived several years on lot 3 West of Carrying Place. Said to have been buried in St George Cemetery, Trenton and to have left:-- widow who was a sister of Edward WELER and the following family:
Ernest, Neuben, Gordie, Harold, Lyons, Burton, Jennie

Dear Madam

A research into the Post family undertaken by the writer several weeks ago, has now been accelerated through the death on June 19th of James Arnold Post, U.S., postmaster here.

For the sakes of a surviving sister and two brothers I am quite anxious to establish insofar as possible a genealogy of the progenitor and his descendants

A descendant of John Post who was born in Fredericksburg to one Frederick Post has recently expressed the opinion that John may have had two or more brothers, some of whom could have been the ancestors of the late J. Arnold Post, and/or of Charles Wesley Post, U.S. who lives on the Carrying Place road, and is a great grandson of the above mentioned John Post

Incidentally, based on interpretation of the Post cemetery gravestones, it would appear that John Post also was ancestor of quite a number of descendants of the name living in north Hastings county who seem to have descended from one Hiram Post.

Any information you may be able to supply will be most gratefully welcomed.

Very sincerely yours

E. Claude Young

Sorry late in May.

Dear Mr. Burleigh,

Thank you very much for your letter of the 11th instant.

I note your interest in your expanding trip to the State Library in June of '11. I thank you for your offer to look up books in the State Library, and you are there, it is very generous of you.

As you have no more interest at the moment in any concrete information on Frederick that he has parents, so that we can collect another generation.
We are wondering if you could please inform us of what you would charge to do a search on Frederick that to help us with our objective.

We would appreciate hearing from you as soon as possible, on the above question.

Dear Sirs:

We are writing to you at the time, regarding information that we would like to obtain on the Ross family. We are in the midst of tracing our family history and have now discovered where members settling in your area in the 1780's.

Should you have a historical library or archives would it be possible to obtain any information you might have on these individuals. Possibly we could obtain photographic copies of any documents you might have with these names appearing on them.

I will list what names and information I have in as short a space as possible.

Mrs. A. F. Post,
3565 W. 10th Ave.,
Vancouver, B. C.

Dear Mrs. Post:

Herewith some additional information about the early Post in this part of Ontario. I am confident that I have enlarged the knowledge of this family. Search of this kind is my hobby. The only thing is that I am growing older and slower.

On looking over my Post file I noted the mention of a will of Frederick Post in the Napanee Registry Office. I considered it a must, so I drove the twelve miles to Napanee, and obtained a xerox copy, which I am enclosing. Unfortunately, it is only a Memorial which deals with the disposal of the home farm in Fredericksburgh. Still, it names his wife and two of his younger daughters.

As you will note, there are still many blanks in the details of the Post family. Still, I have pushed back the curtain in many ways. More will likely follow in years to come. I am sorry that I do not know where the will may be found. There is one place. It might be in Ospey Hall, Toronto, the legal centre of Ontario. Or a copy might be in the Heir & Devisee Papers in the Provincial Archives of Ontario, in Toronto.

The United Empire Loyalists' Association is a Dominion-wide organization, with branches in many cities. There are two in Toronto, and one in Hamilton, St. Catharines, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Victoria, Ottawa, St. John, N.B. Our Branch, the Bay of Quinte Branch, with headquarters in Adolphustown, was formed about 1956. The aims of our Association are

1. To unite together, irrespective of creed or political party, the descendants of those families who, during the American Revolutionary War of 1775 to 1783, sacrificed their homes in retaining their loyalty to the British Crown; and to perpetuate their spirit of loyalty to the Empire.
2. To preserve the history and traditions of that important epoch in Canadian history, by rescuing from oblivion the history and traditions of the Loyalist families before it is too late.
3. To collect together in a suitable place the portraits, relics, and documents relating to the United Empire Loyalists, which are now scattered throughout the Dominion.
4. To publish an historical and genealogical journal, or annual transactions.

To become a member, a person must be able to prove descent either in the male or female line from a U. E. Loyalist. Our Branch has processed about three hundred persons, many of whom have since died. We have a museum in Adolphustown, where we exhibit many things belonging to our early history. It does not pay its way, but tries to keep before the public our interest in our genealogical background.

By the way, if you feel that you can afford it, I feel that I have earned an additional $15.00. I actually paid our $2.50 in Napanee for copy of will and search of records.

Yours sincerely,

Frederick 100, a soldier in the Orange Rangers, was almost certainly a native of New Jersey, and likely born about 1755. The state of New Jersey was the early home of the Post family, the majority of whom, in the Revolution, were Tories. Four Posts are recorded in the census for New Brunswick, one named Jacob belonged to Taylor's Rangers and settled in Niagara. Frederick, who came to Upper Canada about 1770, likely with a wife and one or two children, first located in Frederickburgh Township. In Land Book II he is shown as located on Lot 1 west half in Township 1. Additionally, on the north shore of Bay Bay. This 100 acre lot had been originally granted to Albert Williams, who must have sold it to Post. In a Tax list for this Township in 1800, Frederick Post lived in a round log house, had cleared thirty five acres, with 65 acres uncultivated, two horses, three cows, four owned cattle, and was assessed for 4 1/2.

He was still on this lot on April 20, 1831, when he died. We do not know the will in detail. Our knowledge of it comes from a historical record by his son-in-law, John Perry, who dealt with the lot on which he was living. By the will, he willed the thirty five acre lot to his wife, Mary, as long as she remained unmarried. If this happened the property was to go to his daughter Sarah Foster and Charles M. We must conclude that Frederick died between April 20, 1831, and 1st March, 1832.

Frederick Post, as a Loyalist, was entitled to 200 acres of land in his own name, fifty acres in addition for his wife and fifty acres for each child. This being so, he would likely have been about 500 acres. As his sons, three at least, removed to Prince Edward County, they could well have taken up their father's land.

Frederick Post is said to have fathered ten children. These were as follows:

John, born in 1777, likely in New Jersey, died in 1844, and is buried in the Post Cemetery on Lot 6, Township 1, Frederickburgh Township, on the north shore of the Bay of Quinte. He married Maria, daughter of William Taylor, U. E. L. She was born in 1781, and died 21 July, 1860, and thus became his widow. They were married 2 May, 1790.

A little list of Prince Edward County in 1825, containing three Post names together, indicating that they were likely father and two sons, they were Frederick, William, John, and 21; Frederick, and 22; and William, and 23. I am sure that these three were the oldest sons of John and Maria.

See below for John's 1st family.

Mary, birth date unknown, married 27 Feb., 1772, John Perry, of Richmond Township. She drew 200 acres of land, as daughter of a U. E. L. Loyalist by Order in Council 24 July, 1771. She had three known children. Nothing further is known of her.

John, birth date unknown, but the record in Ridgeway Township, seven miles north of Lot 1, states that she died 3 Nov., 1800, aged 50 years. He married, in 1772, John Perry, who was my great grandfather's brother. They had several known children. He drew 200 acres of land by Order in Council 24 July, 1771.

William, of Hallowell Township, Prince Edward County. Nothing further is known of him, except that he drew 200 acres of land by O. E. L. Dec., 1819.

Jacob, of Frederickburgh Township. He drew 200 acres of land by O. E. L. Dec., 1819, at which time he had to have been 21 years of age, or older. He must have been the Jacob Post, with wife and two children in Mohawk Township in the years 1810 and 1811. He married, first, Charity Forshee, and, secondly, on 22 July, 1813, Mary Quackenbush. It is recorded in my file that he was born in New Jersey in 1779. He had two children by his first wife, and three by the second. There may have been more. Some of his descendants settled in the Brighton area in Northumberland County.

ISAAC, of Fredericksburgh, who drew 200 acres by O. C. 18 Aug., 1821. Isaac remained in the Fredericksburgh area, and some of his descendants are known to me..

SARAH HESTER AN, mentioned in the Memorial of her father's will. Nothing further known of her.

CHARITY AN, mentioned in the Memorial of her father's will. Nothing further known of her.

JOHN POST (son of Frederick Post, U. E.), born in 1771; died in 1765; married in 1798, Eunice, daughter of Elisha Alger, U. E. He settled in Fredericksburgh with his parents, but removed to Ameliasburgh Township in Prince Edward County before 1822. More might be learned about his settlement by search in the Registry Office in Picton. He and his wife, with a number of their descendants, are buried in the Post Cemetery, Lot 66, Concession one, Ameliasburgh Township, Prince Edward County. Those buried there are:

John Post, 1771-1865.

Eunice, his wife, born 1781; died July 31, 1866.

Frederick Post, died 1866, aged 66 years.

Norman T. Post, 1849-1918.

Beatrice A. (Gerow), his wife, 1863-1956.

James A., son of W. W. & D. E. Post, died July 9, 1881, aged 1 yr. 5 mo.

James Oscar, son of G. & A. Post, died June 29, 1881, aged 14 days.

Prince Edward Militia List, 1822.

John Post, aged 51 years.

Frederick Post, aged 22 years.

William Post, aged 19 years.

In those days, all males between 16 and 60 were enrolled in the Militia.

Because these three names follow one another in the list, I feel the right to class them as father and two sons.

I am not happy with the children of John Post. You have listed two. I can add only two, and then by assumption. There must be more.

Children:

Frederick, born in 1830, died in 1866, presumably unmarried, and buried in the Post Cemetery. He is supposed to have died 5 Sept. 1861, and is buried in a cemetery opposite the road to Point Anne, on the Bay of Quinte, in Thurlow Township, Hastings County. Daniel Post, supposed to be his son, is buried beside him 16 May, 1853, aged 23 years.

ELISHA, born April 12, 1816, in Ameliasburgh, and died in August, 1891, on Lot 9, Concession 4, Hungerford Township, Hastings County, it is believed. He married Mary Elizabeth Morden, who was born May 19, 1822. Further comments below.

ABRAHAM, BORN 4th October, 1825, and died 18th March, 1895(6). He was buried in the Post Cemetery on Lot 66, 1st Concession, Ameliasburgh. His name was omitted in the list of burials in this cemetery. He married Catherine Hamilton, who died in Manitoba. His children, supplied by another branch of the family, were Norman T.

Walter Wellington

Oscar

Anne, who married and settled in Manitoba.

William Lewis.

Most of these children are buried in the Post Cemetery.

At this point it might be well to review a vital feature of activities a century ago. If a family has, let us say, four sons, and they are residing on a hundred acre farm, it is certain that the farm cannot support all the males in the family, particularly if they marry and begin to raise families of their own. The solution resolves itself by three sons establishing themselves elsewhere, while one son remains with the old folks. He eventually inherits the farm.

This happened to the Post family, noted above. Frederick, of whom we know so little, may not have married, but remained with the parents. William, on marriage, removed to Thurlow Township, just across the Bay from his home. Here he eventually died and was buried, as shown above. Elisha, I firmly believe, removed with his wife to Hungerford Township, Hastings County. In 1860, one of this name was living on Lot 9, concession 4. His descendants are still to be found in that area.

Abraham, the fourth and youngest son, evidently remained on the home farm, and was buried in the Post Cemetery on the home farm, as were several of his sons and grandchildren.

The same situation holds in the family of Elisha Post. A list of his children appear in the Morden family, where the three children who died young are omitted. The eldest son, Hiram, is shown as settling in Hungerford Township, and that his descendants were still there in 1904. George Wiley and James were living on the farm home lot 9, in Concession 4 in 1904. I wonder if the James was your James Parliament. Then, to add to the interest is the family of Robt. Tweedy residing in the neighborhood in 1860. In 1904 the same lot was occupied by S. Tweedy on the west half and a Mrs. Tweedy on the east half. They were very likely relatives of the wife of James Parliament Post.

John, who was granted 200 acres by O.C. 12 July 1777. It was his petition which led to his father's name put on the U.E. List. He settled in Amherstburg Township, Prince Edward County. Lot 66 Concession 1. He married Anne daughter of Elisha Alger, U.E. She was born in 1791 and died 31 July 1866. John was born in 1771 and died in 1865. They, with others of the family are buried in the family cemetery on the home lot (see list enclosed).

John's name, with two of his sons appears in the Militia List of Prince Edward County in 1822. He was listed as aged 51. Two evident sons Frederick K aged 22 and William Post aged 19 years. See later

2 Mary, married 27 Feb 1798 John Brown, of Richmond Twp. She drew 200 acres by O.C. 2 July 1799. They had at least three children. Nothing further known.

3 Jane, married in 1813 John Percy of Canada East. She drew 200 acres by O.C. 26 March 1817. John was my great grandfather Percy's elder brother. Jane died 3 Nov 1841, aged 54 years and was buried in Switzerville Cemetery 7 miles north of Perth. She was mother of a moderate sized family.

4 Reynard, of Hallowell Twp. P.E. Co. drew 200 acres by O.C. 27 Dec 1819. No one seems to know anything further of Reynard.

5 Jacob, of Fredericksburg Twp. He drew 200 acres by O.C. 17 Sept 1823. He had to be 21 yrs of age at that time. One of this name with a wife and 2 children appears in the census of Adolphustown in 1809 and 1810. He is likely the one who married 1st Charity Forshee and 2nd on 22 July 1813 Mary Quackenbush. He was recorded as aged 4 in 1784. I find this recorded in my file ^{born in New Jersey in 1779}. He had at least five children & lived in Prince Edward Co and the Burlington area.

Not too much is known of Frederick Post, except that he was a soldier in the Orange Rangers. ^{from about 1755} One item in my file states that he was of Schenectady, N.Y. However, being in the Orange Rangers it means most likely, that he resided in the lower Hudson River Valley, either in New Jersey, or Orange County, N.Y. He was not in Canada before 1783 nor did he settle in Ontario with the first Loyalist settlers. He likely came in between 1785 & 1797.

A record in Land Book D shows Frederick Post on East half of lot 1 Concession 3 Frederickburg Additional. In the assessment Roll of 1808, he had 35 acres cultivated out of 100 acres, 2 horses 3 cows & 4 horned cattle, with an assessment of £110. In another record he is shown on the west half of this lot. There is some confusion ~~of this~~ regarding this lot. It was, in 1784 recorded as drawn by Elbert (Albert) Williams ~~for~~ by 1808 it is recorded to James Forster. He likely sold it to Frederick Fox. Here he evidently resided until his death. His will was made 20 April 1831, and ^{by} a memorial dated 1st March 1832. (copy enclosed) he bequeathed 2/3ds of the lot to his wife Mary. As this is a memorial conveyance only, this piece of property, it is not known where the original will is or what its terms were. In any event, he died between those two dates. It is possible that the original will is in Osgoode Hall Toronto. Frederick must have had other lands, as he was entitled to 200 acres for himself, fifty acres for his wife & fifty acres for each child. This would make at least 500 acres, some of which could well have been in Prince Edward County where most of his sons settled. His wife Mary, whose surname is unknown, is shown in a list of Frederickburg ¹⁸¹³ as owning a team of horses. You have said that he had 10 children. I cannot name them all. The known ones were

Lot number 1 in the 3rd Concession of Fredericksburg was originally granted to others (East half - Capt D McPherson, West half - Elbert Williams + ^{Forshee} Quebec Plan), but the West half (100 acres) was acquired by James, on or before Nov 25th 1802 when he first received a Crown grant. In some unspecified manner, two thirds of it had been acquired by Frederick Post who willed it to Mary Post et al April 20, 1831. The will (witnessed by James) was registered March 2nd 1832. James apparently got another Crown grant to the same land on Jan 19th 1835. He deeded the whole 100 acres to Mills Park on June 20th 1837, the consideration being £225

MR. POLY, LEMER AINSWORTH

(By Mr. A. K. Barr)

Q. Now in connection of Mrs. Ann, (Ainsworth)

The subject of this sketch was one of the early settlers in the Barr neighborhood in Illinois. She was the daughter of Peter Sadner, and of the Ainsworths of Annetasburg, and Catherine Ainsworth Sadner. She was also one of the moving factors in the community, and a sister of her dear mother.

Though her name was Mary, yet from infancy she was only known by the name--Poly.

She was the wife of Elder Henry Ainsworth, and to this union were born eleven children. Ten grew to maturity and were married and raised families of their own. Their names in the order of birth are as follows: Catherine, Aurelia, Eliza, Philis, Peter, Royal C., Benjamin C., Mary Eliza, Sanford and John Franklin. All have passed beyond mortality's veil, save that Mrs. Samuel Thompson of Illinois.

Mrs. Mary Ainsworth was a very large number of descendants in Annetasburg County. She is the grandmother and the great grandmother of all the Ainsworths living in Annetasburg.

Her youngest son--John Franklin Ainsworth--also is the son of a church in Iowa, while conducting the services one Sunday morning. His body was brought all the way from Iowa to the Barr neighborhood in Illinois--the same of his children and grandchildren were conducted by the Rev. H. A. Sadner--son of Elder, Annetasburg, and the father of this sketch. Interment took place in the Barr Cemetery, and at his grave stands the most worthy monument that has yet been erected in the town of White House.

The last years of her life were spent with her son--Sanford Ainsworth and family. . . . She closed her career at the age of 82 years. Interment took place in the Barr Cemetery.

Lockport, Illinois, 1881. (Mrs. Mary Ainsworth was my mother's mother. 1881 Nov, 1881)

Jacob Post, farmer
1799--1881 (in ink)
(By Mr. A. K. Barr)

The Barr neighborhood--as it is called to-day--was the last part of Annetasburg County to be settled. The settlement began at the very edge of White on the North, and Lake Ontario on the South, and met in the fifth concession of Illinois.

It was here in 1817 that Jacob Post came from Annetasburg, and took a land--receiving 400 acres from the crown. He was a U. S. Loyalist, being four years old when his father--Frederick Post, and grandfather--Jacob Post--and family--landed with the other U. S. Loyalists in Annetasburg June 10, 1781.

In politics Jacob Post was a Liberal. In religion he was a member of the Church of Christ.

In 1817 Jacob Post received notice that Elder J. P. Brown--an evangelist--was coming--and Jacob Post and his wife were baptized and joined the Church of the Annetasburg--now known as the Church of Christ.

Jacob Post was married twice. Peter Post of Annetasburg, was a son of his by his first wife, and all the Posts in Annetasburg are related to him.

His second wife was Maria--(in ink)--and to them were born three children--John, James H., and Mary Ann.

Mrs. Ann Post is buried in the old Annetasburg Cemetery, and a fine stone--with her name carved on it marks her grave. James Annetasburg Post and his mother--"Mary Ann"--are also in the Barr Cemetery. Jacob Post and his son John, are buried in the old cemetery in Annetasburg, and to the east of Annetasburg and John Post, who lived along the Bay, front--east of Annetasburg--were brothers of Jacob Post.

The Post family were of German descent. They came from the ~~German~~ Holland

Nothing much only on the W's as the man who done this for me was a Wannemaker from New Jersey.
I thought Henry Ritten was amongst about 15 pages - of this much is repeated. We only find Peter Ritten Redner

It seems this Wanamaker in New Jersey who sent me this record ~~from his~~ research and in most cases he was all the Wanamakers. I have pages of this and I have used parts when other than W's were listed.
 We thought Henry Redner was listed but we were mistaken. It was Peter Rutten.
 It may be of some use to you on Rutten's.

History of the Post Family as remembered by me from information handed down by the family.

The Posts came originally from Holland to New York. But I am not sure that they all settled there because the historian, Parkman, relates that one Frederick Post was sent by the Colony of Pennsylvania to what was then called the Far West.

On the outbreak of the American Revolution a number of the family sided with the colonists, the others remaining loyal to Great Britain. Among the latter was my great grandfather, Frederick Post, who lived at that time at Schenectady, New York. I heard my grandfather, Jacob Post, tell the story of the colonist soldiers coming to their home and first demanding food; later they stripped them of all their possessions. There must have been others in that neighborhood that were similarly treated.

Frederick Post's family joined others who made up a party to come north overland to Canada. This occurred in the year 1780, three years before the Major Vanalstine's party embarked from New York in the ships furnished them by the British Government. These overland pioneering Loyalists held those that waited for transportation in contempt, and called them "horse thieves." I don't know where they landed, but it must have been somewhere in the vicinity of Kingston, Ontario. They made their way west from Kingston. The late Dr. W. K. Burr says they came west to Adolphustown. But what I do know is that my grandfather, Jacob Post, settled in South Fredericksburgh, on the north shore of Hay Bay. Of the years intervening from the arrival in Ontario at the age of six, of ~~Frederick~~ Jacob Post, until his settling in above location, I am not able to account for.

The names of Frederick Post and Jacob Post appear in the official lists of the United Empire Loyalists. This list was ordered to be compiled by the Canadian Government, the original of which was filed in the Crown Lands Office. The Jacob Post mentioned in the official list could not have been my grandfather.

Frederick Post had three sons, John, Jacob, who was my grandfather, and Rynard. I know nothing of the descendants of Rynard Post. John Post settled in Ameliasburgh township on the south shore of the Bay of Quinte, at that time called "Seventh Town;" ~~and between Rodnersville and what is now called Ross-~~ ~~mere. Jacob Post,~~ South Fredericksburgh was in Third Town.

My grandfather, Jacob Post, was twice married. I don't know the name of his first wife and I only remember the names of two of his children by this wife. One was Peter William, who kept a hotel in Picton for many years, and the other was Frederick.

the late
According to Dr. Burr my grandfather left the home in South Fredericksburgh to his sons in 1823, but retaining legal title to the farm himself. The sons, evidently thinking themselves the owners, disposed of the farm and no steps were taken to regain possession of it. He re-located on 200 acres, being lot 72 in the 5th concession of the township of Millier, Prince Edward County, bringing with him his three children by his second wife, Mary Quackenbush. Isaac, the eldest, James Q., and Mary Anne, who died young. James Q. was my father, and I have heard him tell why he inserted the letter "Q" in his name. There was another James Post living about three miles west. This similarity of names occasioned much confusion in the delivery of mail, so that he took his mother's maiden name as his second one.

Grandfather Post divided his farm, giving Isaac the west half and my father the east half.

Isaac Post married Jemima Parliament and by her raised a large family. When they were nearly all grown up, he sold his farm and removed to the township of Brighton, or rather about two miles west of Brighton Village.

My father married Catharine Ainsworth, daughter of Henry Ainsworth and his wife Mary Redner, another family of pioneers.

In the year 1867 father sold his half of the farm and bought what was known as the Clouston farm on the lake shore, being part of lot No. 10, Brighton township, and 50 acres of Lot No. 12 in the township of Gramahe.

My father had six children. My parents were married in Demorestville by an Anglican minister about 1847. Albert Wilson, the eldest, was born in 1848, and he married, for his first wife, Emma Lazier, by whom he had one daughter. The mother, Emma, died when the child was but a few days old. The maternal grandparents adopted her. She died young, probably in her 18th year. For his second wife Albert Wilson married Emma King, but he only lived a few months after his marriage, dying in 1874.

Samantha Ann, my father's second child, was born in 1850, and married George Hicks. They had three children, all boys, James Corbin, William Henry and George Albert. James Corbin died in Syracuse, N.Y., in the year 1932. The other two still live there.

The third son (child?), myself, William Henry, was born in 1852, 2nd of March, and in 1876 married Zobeda Lemina, eldest daughter of the late Rev. Jas.

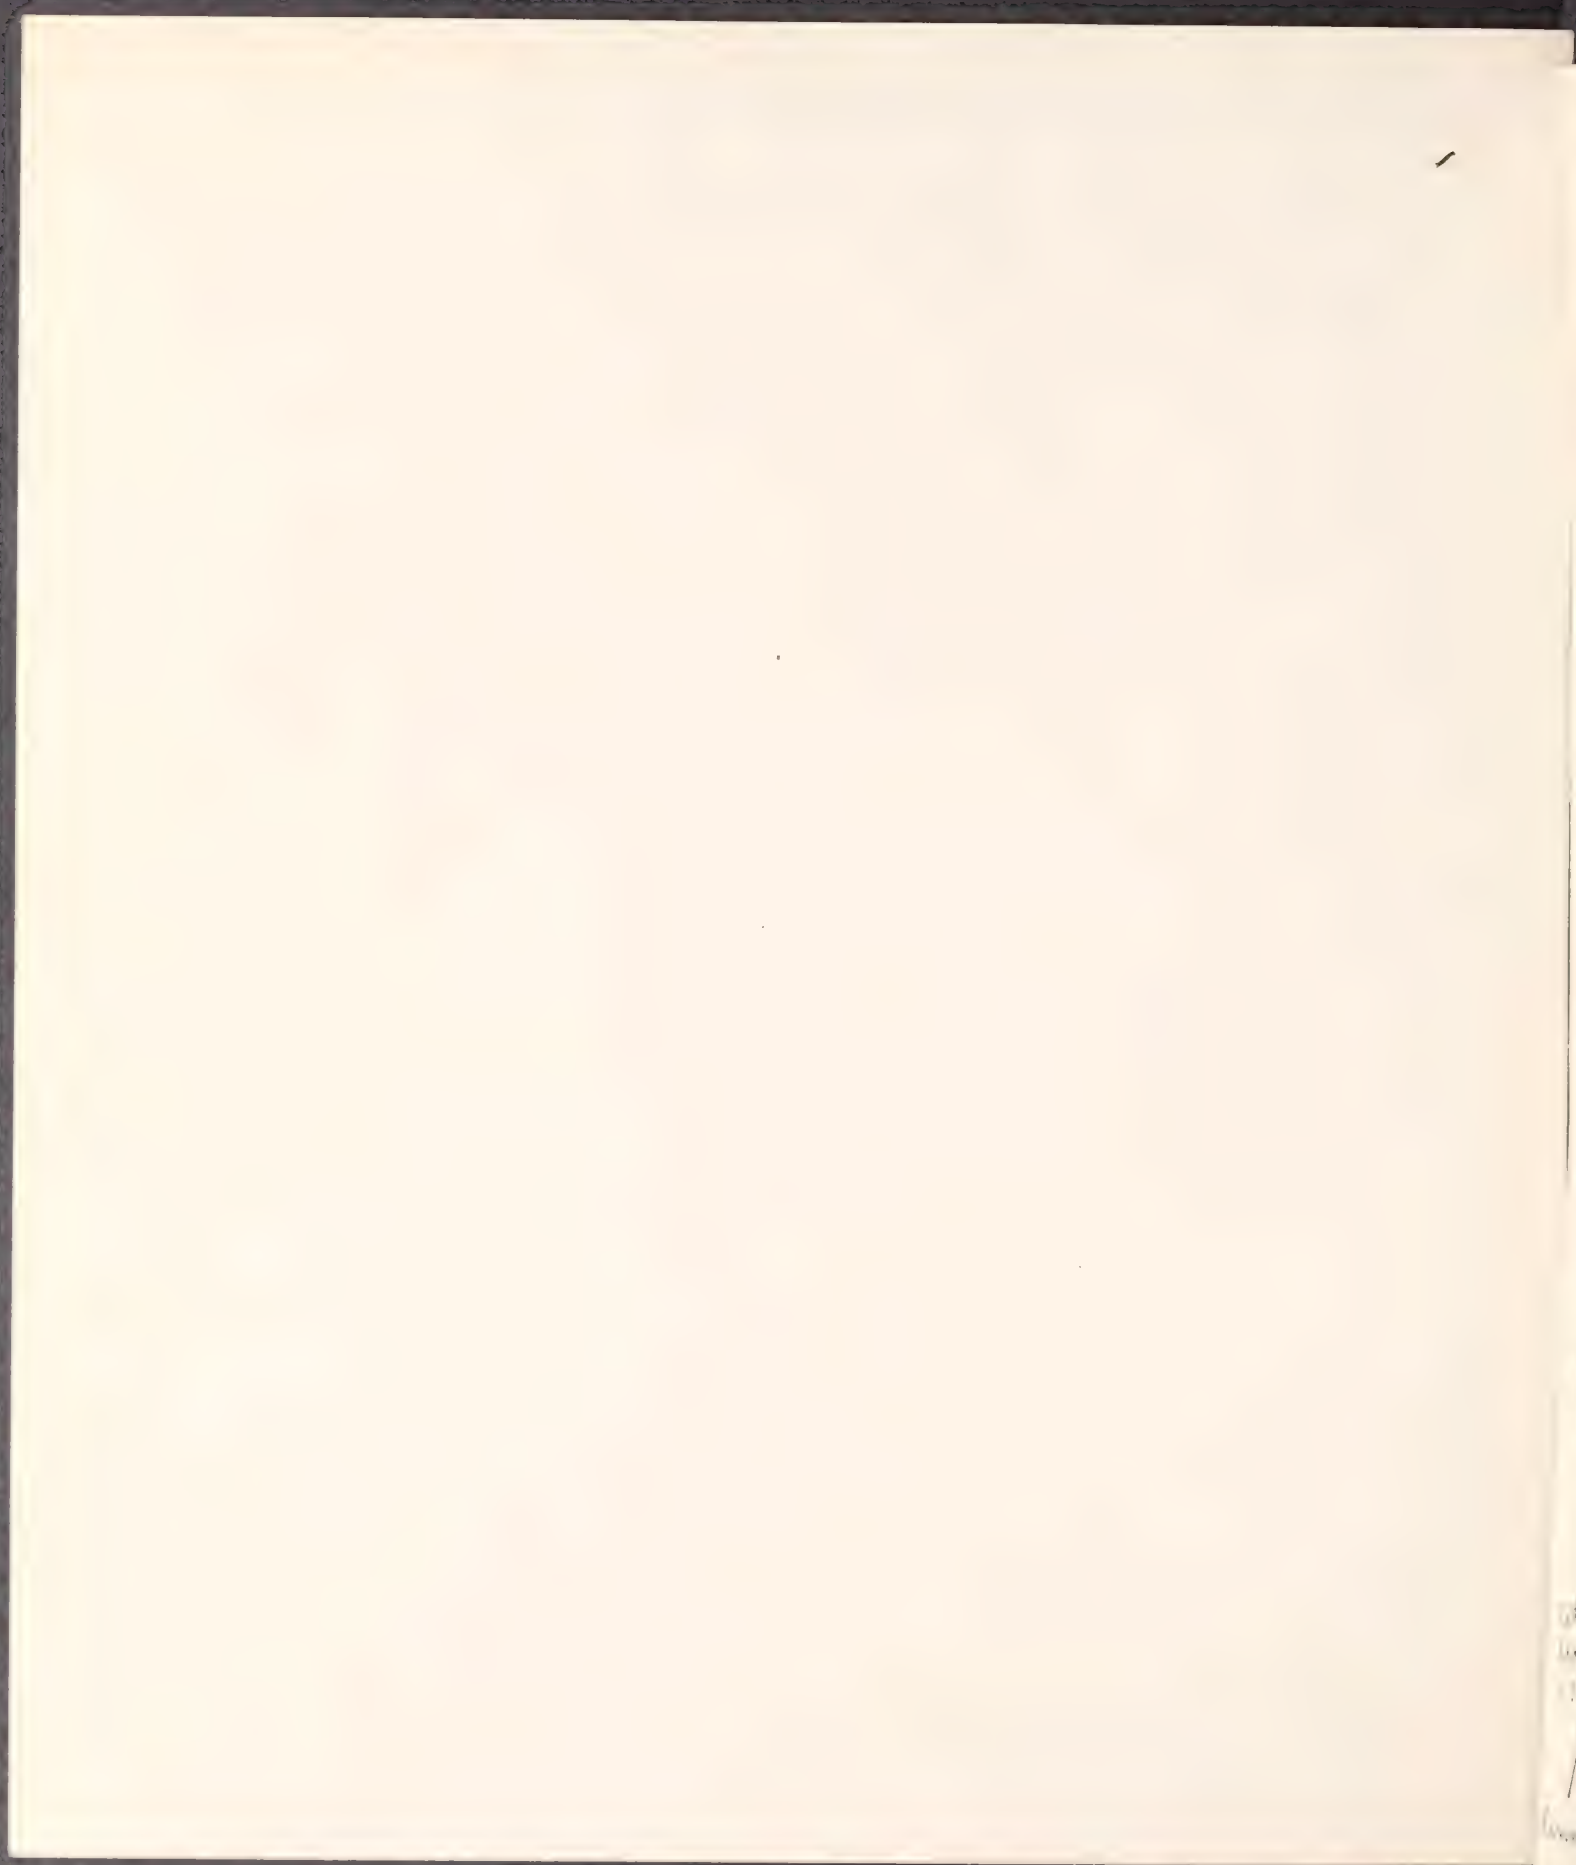

M. Simpson, an M. E. Church minister, and Almira Jane Bedell. There were six children, Hester Maud, the eldest, was born Aug. 14, 1872. She is still living and unmarried at this date. The second, Ida, born in 1880, died in infancy. The third, Mary Eliza, was born Feb. 28, 1883, married Daniel Volney Cope, settled in Calgary, Alberta, and is still living there. She had one son, William Volney, born May 11, 19--, who married Bessie Irwin. They have one daughter, an infant, Ruth Elizabeth.

The fourth child, a daughter, died when a few days old. The fifth was Ruth Simpson, born in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1892. She married Thomas Edwin Cope in 1912. They have 4 sons. The eldest, Arthur Daniel Simpson, was born in 1912. The second, Thomas Edwin, was born in 1914; the third, William John, was born in 1920; and the fourth, Murray Alexander, was born in 1930. All are still alive and unmarried at this date.

The sixth child was a boy who lived but a few hours.

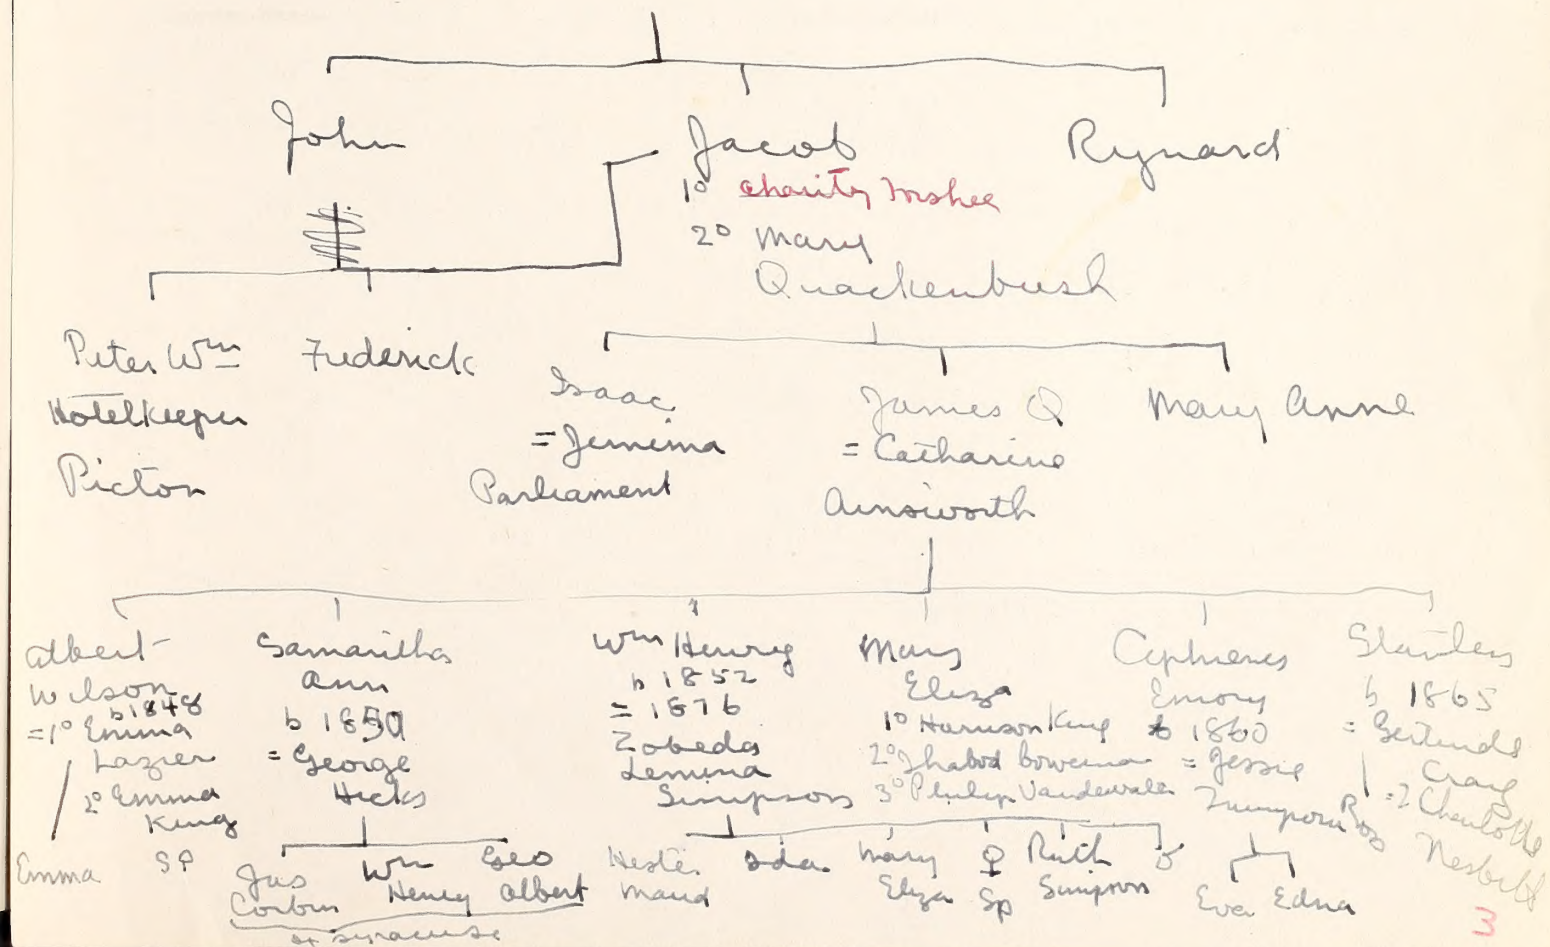

My grandfather, James Post's fourth child was called Mary Eliza, born 20 April, 1856. She was married three times but left no children. Her first husband was Harrison King. The second was Ichabod Bowerman, who only lived a few months after his marriage. The third husband was Philip Vandewater, who died about 1908. She is still living.

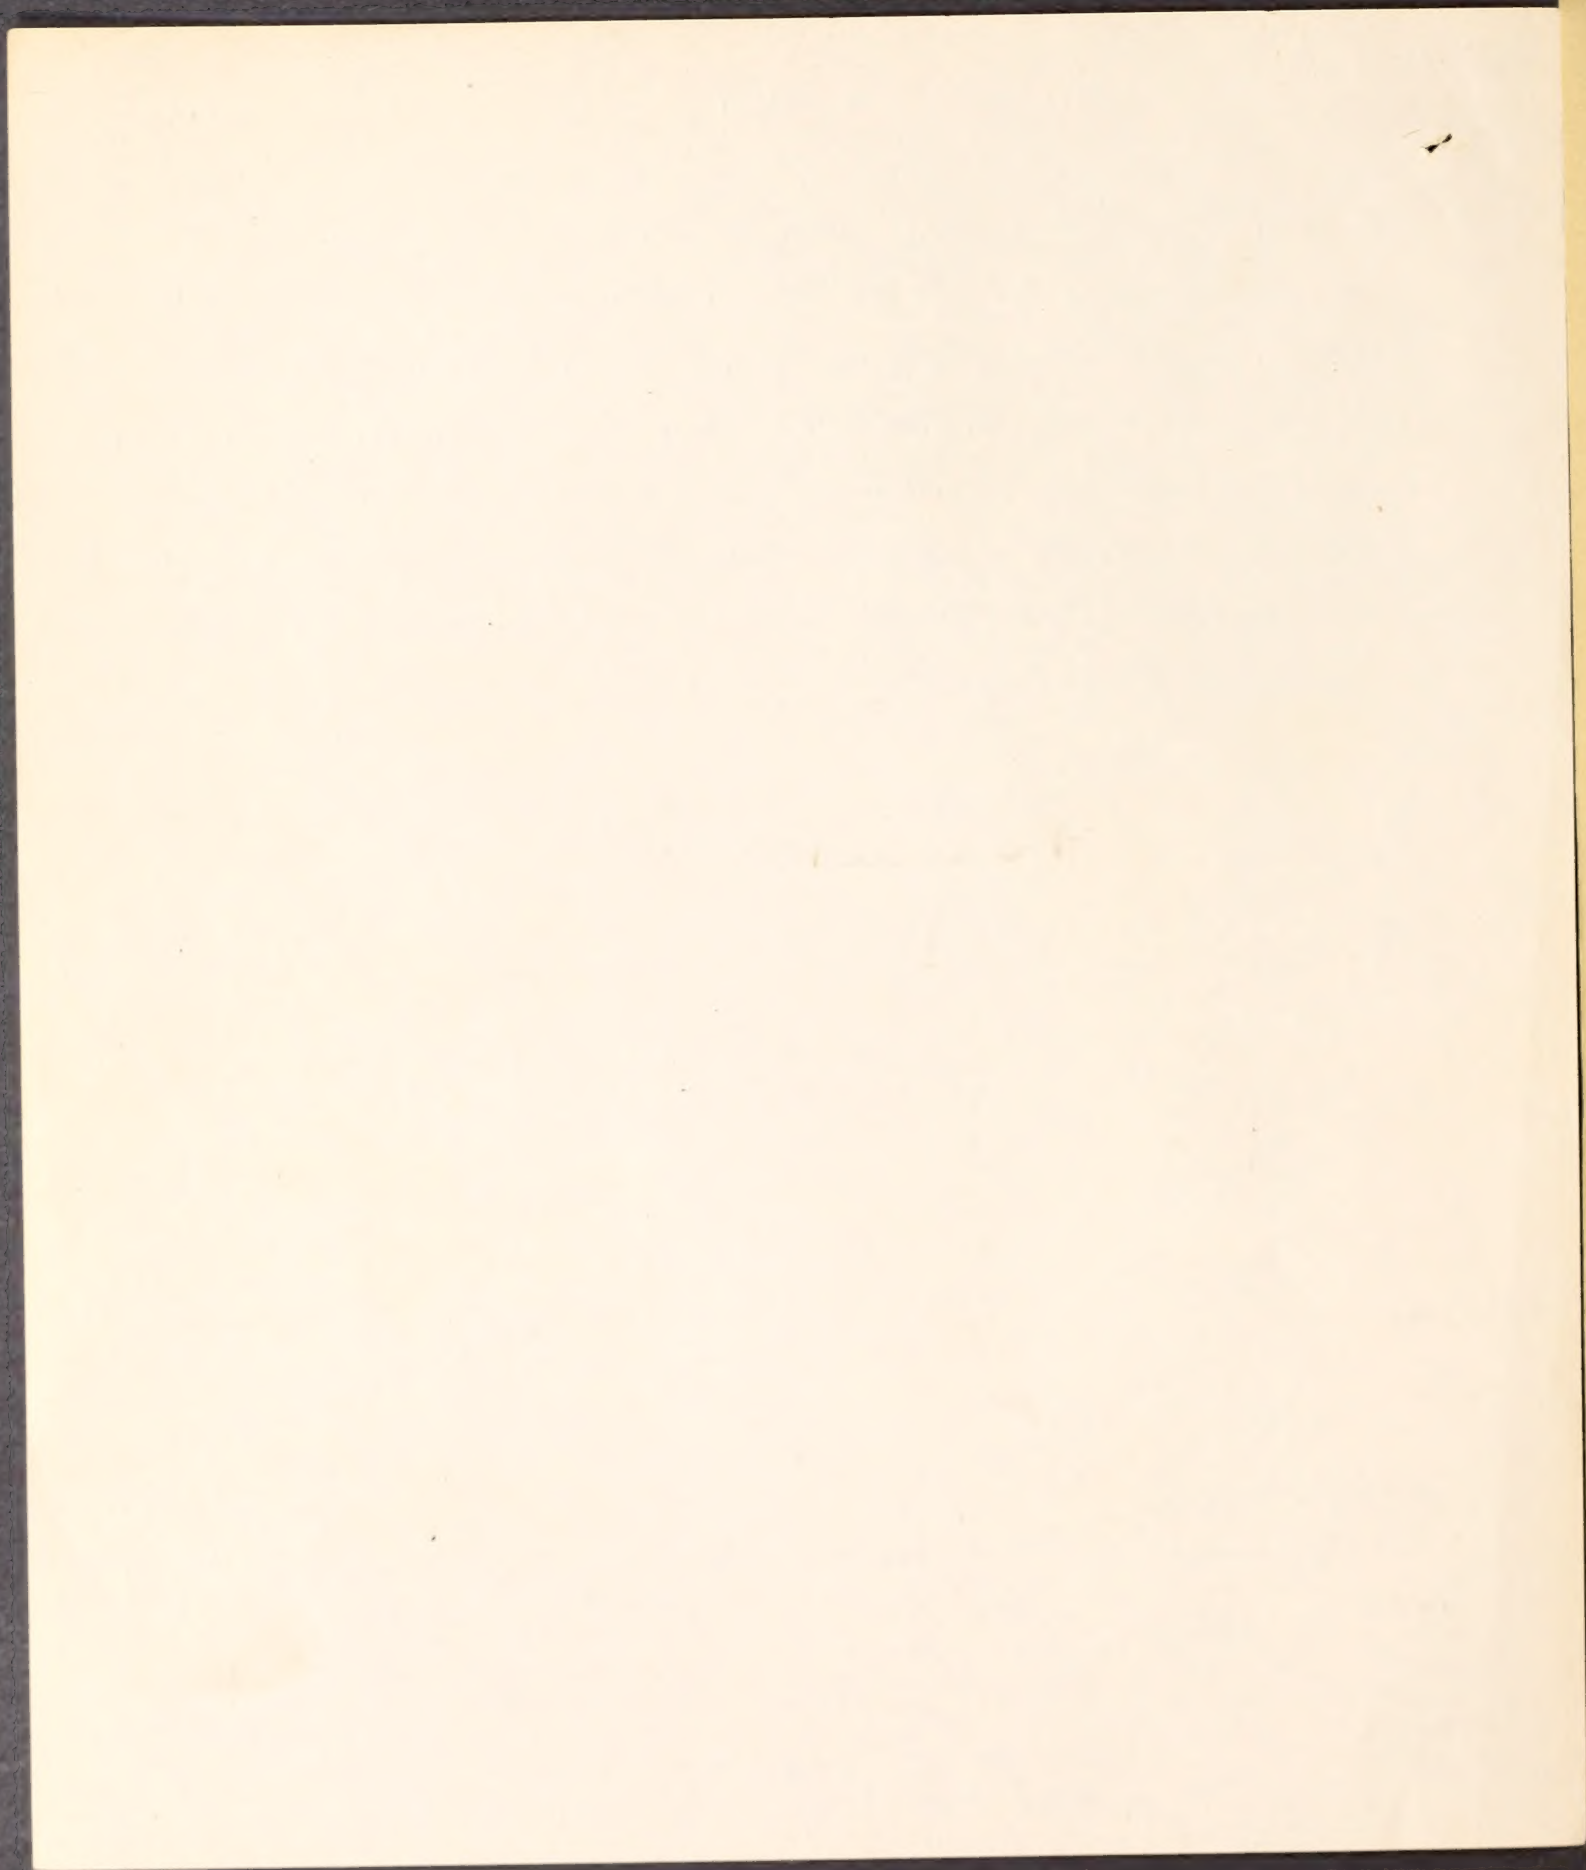

The next child, Cephrenes Emory, who was born 11th Feb., 1860, died in 1929. He married Jessie Trumpour. They had two daughters, Eva and Edna, born twenty years apart. Eva married Arlington Tompkins. They have 2 children, Marion and Charles, born 10 years apart. Both are living and unmarried at this date. Edna is unmarried and living.

Stanley, the youngest child, was born in 1865, on the 4th of July. His first wife was Gertrude Craig. They had one son, Ross. Gertrude died during Ross's infancy. Stanley migrated to Bradwardine, Manitoba, in 1902. The next year he married Charlotte Nesbitt. They had, I think, six children, Joy, George, James, Catharine, Jessie and Ralph. I have been out of communication for some years with this brother, and do not know definitely the names and ages of Stanley's children. Ross went west with his father and married in Bradwardine. I do not know anything of his history either.
